VICTORIA CROSS.

(Extract from the London Gazette of 26th August 1881.)

War Office, August 24th, 1881.

THE QUEEN having been graciously pleased, by Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 6th of August 1881, to direct that the decoration of the Victoria Cross shall be conferred on members of the Indian Ecclesiastical Establishments who may be qualified to receive the same, in accordance with the rules and ordinances made and ordained for the government thereof, provided that it be established in any case that the person was serving under the orders of a General or other Officer in command of troops in the field when he performed the act of bravery for which it is proposed to confer the decoration:—

Her Majesty has accordingly been pleased to signify Her intention to confer this high distinction on the under-mentioned gentleman, whose claim to the same has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval on account of his conspicuous bravery in Afghanistan as recorded against his name, viz.:—

	Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Bengal Ecclesiastical Establishment, late Chaplain to the Kabul Field Force.	The Reverend J. W. Adams	During the action at Killa Kazi, on the 11th December 1879, some men of the 9th Lancers having fallen, with their horses, into a wide and deep "nullah" or ditch, and the enemy being close upon them, the Reverend J. W. Adams rushed into the water (which filled the ditch), dragged the horses from off the men upon whom they were lying, and extricated them, he being at the time under a heavy fire, and up to his waist in water. At this time the Afghans were pressing on very rapidly, the leading men getting within a few yards of Mr. Adams, who having let go his horse in order to render more effectual assistance, had eventually to escape on foot.

Our will and pleasure is that it shall be competent for our Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of our Treasury, to grant, in certain exceptional cases, Pay, Non-Effective Pay, and Allowances at rates other than those laid down in any of our Warrants or Regulations;

Provided always that a list of such of the grants thus approved as the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury may direct, and a statement of the grounds on which they have been made, shall be annually laid before Parliament.

Transfer to Army Reserve.

XXV. GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 99.—Staff College.

(Specially issued, 16th August 1881.)

At the examination for admission to the Staff College, to be held in June 1882, the scope of Military History and Geography will be that embraced by Parts I. to V. of the "Operations of War," by Sir E. B. Hamley; which will be the text book of examination.

G.O. 100.—Reviews.

(Specially issued, 26th August 1881).

I. After an interval of 21 years, the Queen has, for the second time, reviewed the Volunteers of Scotland; but the Corps which have now assembled for Her Majesty's inspection, including the Volunteers of the border counties of England, have amounted in number to 40,000, or nearly double the force brought together in 1861.

II. Although unhappily marred by continuous rain, the spectacle yesterday presented to Her Majesty was an admirable sequel to the great Review recently held at Windsor; and the Queen has observed with much gratification that the same soldierlike bearing, progress in discipline, and uniform good conduct, which distinguished the Volunteers there assembled, were conspicuous in a like degree on the present occasion.

III. Yesterday's Review, and the unavoidable discomfort attending the return of the troops to their homes, necessarily without change of clothing and after many hours of fatiguing delay, furnished a trial of endurance and discipline rarely called for; and Her Majesty, while deploring the cause, has learned with satisfaction that the conduct of Her Volunteers has been all that could be desired.

IV. The Field-Marshal Commanding-in-Chief has been commanded by the Queen to express to the Volunteers of all ranks Her entire satisfaction with the appearance of the troops assembled; and His Royal Highness, in communicating Her Majesty's commands to the Forces, desires on his own part to convey his thanks to Major-General Alastair Macdonald, on whom devolved the duty of organising the Review and of commanding the Force, as well as to the Army Corps, Divisional, Brigade, and Medical Staffs, through whose exertions this successful gathering of Corps scattered throughout the Kingdom into one united Force, has been most successfully accomplished.

G.O. 101.—Equipment.

Non-commissioned officers and men attending Signalling and other Classes are to take with them their side-arms and waistbelts.

G.O. 102.—Field Exercise.

Para. 4, Sec. 3, Part VII., of the "Field Exercise and Evolutions of Infantry, 1877," will be corrected to read as follows:—

4. Troops marching on a road will observe the rule of the road for driving; the directing flank will be that next the centre of the road.

G.O. 103.—Good-Conduct Medals.

I. The non-commissioned officers and men named in the accompanying list (not inserted in Army List), have been awarded silver medals, with gratuities, for "Long Service and Good Conduct," under the provisions of Arts. 902 to 907 of the Royal Warrant of the 25th June 1881 ("Army Regulations," Vol. I.).

II. The non-commissioned officers named in this list who have become Warrant Officers from 1st July 1881, under Art. 517 of the above quoted Warrant, have been specially included, as they are deemed to have been eligible for these rewards before the dates on which they became Warrant Officers.

G.O. 104.—Gymnastics.

A quarterly return, prepared in accordance with the form shown in the Appendix, of the progress made in gymnastic instruction, will be rendered by Officers Commanding Regiments of Cavalry, and Battalions of Infantry, and Officers Commanding Regimental Districts where Garrison gymnasia are established, to General Officers Commanding Districts and Stations at home and abroad for transmission to the Adjutant General of the Forces.

G.O. 105.—Recruiting.

The following alterations have been made in the Memorandum showing the "Advantages of the Army" issued with G.O. 83 of 1881, and future editions will be amended accordingly, viz.:—

Part I.—Add to the footnote at the bottom of page 1, "The age given by a soldier on attestation is taken as his real age throughout his service, and men are therefore warned to give their correct age when attested, as their prospects in the service are likely to suffer if their age is incorrectly recorded."

"Misrepresentations cannot be corrected afterwards, and soldiers are in no case allowed to benefit by mis-statements discovered subsequently."

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

Part V.—At the end of the first para., add "a soldier purchasing his discharge will relinquish all claim to Deferred Pay."

Part VIII.—In line 2, after the word "light" add "and medical attendance for himself and if married, for his family."

G.O. 106.—Regimental Districts.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of the County of Nottingham being transferred from the 17th to the 45th Regimental District.

G.O. 107.—Returns.

I. The designations of Trumpet-Major, Drum-Major, Bugle-Major, and Pipe-Major having been abolished, and those of Sergeant-Trumpeter, Sergeant-Drummer, Sergeant-Bugler, and Sergeant-Piper substituted, these non-commissioned officers will in future be accounted for in Returns in the columns for Sergeants, and not in those for Drummers, &c.

II. G.O. 104 of 1872, para. 4, will be amended accordingly.

G.O. 108.—Signalling.

I. The "Manual of Instruction in Army Signalling" having been revised, copies will be issued in due course to all concerned.

II. The Manual referred to in G.O. 157 of 1880 is hereby cancelled.

G.O. 109.—Qualifications for Staff of Army in India.

With the concurrence of the Secretary of State for India in Council, the following rules, showing the qualifications required from Officers of the British Service for the under-mentioned appointments to the General Staff of the Army in India, are published for information:—

The period of service in India qualifying for a brigade command of a Regimental Field Officer who has been through a campaign in India in command of a regiment or battery, is reduced to three years, provided the campaign was one for which a medal was granted, or for which the Officer has been honourably mentioned in despatches.

III. Qualifications for Deputy Adjutant-General and Assistant Adjutant-General, Royal Artillery:—

Three years' service in India as a Regimental Field Officer, and no linguistic tests.

G.O. 110.—Veterinary School, Aldershot.

I. A soldier who may be either a Farrier Quartermaster-Sergeant, Sergeant Farrier, Shoeing Smith, or a man in training for the latter position, will be detailed from each Cavalry Regiment in the United Kingdom for each of the "Classes for Farriers and others" alluded to in G.O. 159 of 1880.

II. No soldier will be selected who is not in possession of a third-class certificate of education.

III. Para. III. of G.O. 159 of 1880, and G.O. 85 of 1881, will be corrected in accordance with this order.

G.O. 111.—Volunteers.

The following will be substituted for para. 469 of the Volunteer Regulations 1861 (Revised Army Regulations, Vol. IX).

469. Volunteers when attending Banquets, Receptions, or Rifle Meetings out of the United Kingdom will not be permitted to wear uniform, nor when attending Rifle Meetings out of the United Kingdom will they be permitted to use Government arms.

THE

'CARMICHAEL'

PORTABLE

BOOT TREE.

HAS ALREADY BEEN SUPPLIED TO

HIS IMPERIAL HIGHNESS THE CROWN PRINCE OF GERMANY,

AND TO

OFFICERS IN THE FOLLOWING REGIMENTS—

10th Hussars.	52nd Light Infantry.	Corps of Guides (Cabul).
5th Lancers.	58th Regiment.	Bombay Cavalry.
9th Lancers.	72nd Highlanders.	Bombay Staff Corps.
8th and 21st Hussars.	80th Regiment.	Royal Marines, &c., &c.
Royal Artillery.

A want long felt has just been supplied by this most important invention. All sportsmen and military men know the great advantage of having both their long and short boots treed up every day, ESPECIALLY after they have been wet, but there is often great inconvenience in carrying about the boot trees. A cavalry officer has lately hit upon the idea that an Indiarubber tree which with ease may be carried in the pocket, can, when put inside the boot be inflated, filling out the boot tightly, and so making it an impossibility to shrink. For officers on active service, autumn manœuvres, or whenever it is impossible to carry wooden trees, this invention will be invaluable. This invention is patented for Great Britain and other countries. Orders should be sent as early as possible, accompanied by an old boot as a pattern, to

DENT'S CHRONOMETERS,

WATCHES, and CLOCKS have long held pre-eminent rank, as may be seen from the Reports of various scientific persons:—

THE ASTRONOMER ROYAL, (Sir G. B. AIRY,) in his Report to the Admiralty (13th of August 1870) on the forty Chronometers entered for annual competition, says of M. F. DENT'S Chronometer—

"THIS IS THE FINEST CHRONOMETER THAT WE HAVE EVER HAD ON TRIAL."

N.B.—The LATE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (J. POND, Esq.), reporting in 1829 on the celebrated public trial, by order of The Lords of the Admiralty, which lasted thirteen years, during which nearly 500 Chronometers were tested, says:

"Your Chronometer, No. 114, is entitled to the First Premium. Actual variation in the year 0·54 hundredths of a second. This is superior to any other yet tried."

THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ASTRONOMER, M. STRUVE, of St. Petersburgh, reporting upon 81 Chronometers tested by the Russian Chronometrical Expedition, in 1843, says:

"The DENT CHRONOMETERS have held FIRST RANK in a brilliant manner. They contributed, beyond dispute, THE MOST EFFECTUALLY to the exactitude of the results.

"M. STRUVE."

 By Command of the Emperor, the Russian Gold Medal of the Highest Order of Merit was presented to Mr. DENT.

SIR WILLIAM ARMSTRONG, Inventor of the Armstrong Gun, says:—

"9, HYDE PARK STREET, W., 14*th November* 1861.

"The Chronometer Watch you made for me in December 1859 has never been affected by travelling or riding; its variation at the end of a year was only 45 seconds. It has proved in every respect a most satisfactory Watch.

"W. G. ARMSTRONG.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

148
583 & 610

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. An officer, soldier, marine, or sailor must, however, first obtain permission from the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such medal is not to be worn.

(THIS APPLIES ALSO TO THE AUXILIARY FORCES.)

VICTORIA R.

Whereas under the provisions of the Army Act, 1881, the expression "Corps" in that Act, unless the context otherwise requires, means, in the case of our Regular and Auxiliary Forces (besides the bodies in the said Act mentioned), any such military body of the description therein mentioned, and also any such portion of our Regular Forces, as may from time to time be declared by our Warrant to be a Corps for the purposes of the said Act; and also any other portion of our Regular or Auxiliary Forces employed on any service and declared by us to any Corps, as before in the said Act defined;

And whereas we deem it expedient to make declarations accordingly;

Our will and pleasure is that, without prejudice to the rights of men posted to Corps thereby created, our Warrant of the 29th June 1881 be cancelled from the 27th day of September 1881, and we do hereby declare that on and after the last-mentioned date, such military bodies, and such portions of our Regular and Auxiliary Forces as are set forth in detail in the Schedule to this our Warrant, shall be deemed to be Corps for the purposes of the Army Act, 1881.

Given at our Court at Balmoral, this 29th day of September 1881, in the 45th year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
HUGH C. E. CHILDERS.

VICTORIA R.

Whereas, by an Act passed in the 44th and 45th years of our reign, entitled "The Regulation of the Forces Act," it is enacted that "where, either before or after the passing of such Act, a man in the Army Reserve has been called out for permanent service, and at the termination of such service has been returned to the Reserve Force, and has become entitled to pension under any regulation by the Secretary of State, then before or after the passing of this Act, or before or after such calling out or return, then the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital shall have the same power to award and pay the said pension, and otherwise in relation to the said pension, as they would have if such men had been discharged from the Army on reduction"

Our will and pleasure is that such men of Sections A and C of the 1st Class Army Reserve as were enrolled in 1878, and had, on or before the 31st of July 1878, a minimum combined service of fourteen years in our Regular Forces and in our Army Reserve, shall be granted modified pensions not exceeding the rates assignable by Our Warrant of the 1st of May 1878, for the service previous to the 31st of July 1878, which they may be allowed to reckon towards pension in each case, such pensions to take effect from the date of their discharge from the Army Reserve, and to be subject to the repayment of any pay and gratuity which may have been granted them on such discharge.

Given at our Court at Balmoral, this 14th day of September 1881, in the 45th year of our reign

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

G.O. 117.—Certificates of Education.

The following will be substituted for G.O. 49 of 1875:—

I. Whenever soldiers are examined for Certificates of Education, a non-commissioned officer from each of the corps to which the soldiers belong is to attend at the examination room to identify the men, for the information of the Sub-Inspector of Army Schools or other Officer detailed to superintend the examination.

II. This non-commissioned officer, before proceeding with the men to the examination room, will satisfy himself of their identity, for which he will be held responsible.

G.O. 118.—Dress—Highland Regiments.

I. As it is desirable that the ornaments for Officers of Highland Regiments should be as nearly as possible of uniform size, and that the cost of them should not be greater than is really necessary, the following regulations in regard to them are published:—

II. The Dirk is not to exceed in length 17½ inches over all, from extreme end of dirk handle to the point of the sheath. The blade should not be more than 1¾ inches in breadth at the broadest part.

III. The Undress Dirk Belt is to be of plain white or black leather.

IV. The Sporran top must not exceed 6 inches in width. The breadth of the sporran leather must not exceed 9 inches. The length of the top and leather together must not exceed 11 inches, or for badger-skin sporrans 13 inches.

V. Officers may wear Undress Sporrans resembling those of the men.

VI. The Bullion Tassels on the dress sporrans must not exceed six. They are only to be worn in "Review Order," and must be removable in regiments that do not adopt the undress sporran.

VII. The diameter of the Brooch must not exceed 3¾ inches. Undress brooches are not to be worn.

VIII. Subject to the above conditions, there is no objection to each regiment having its own distinctive pattern.

IX. The Commanding Officers of the Line Battalion of each Territorial Regiment will determine the regimental patterns, and will appoint one tradesman, who shall be bound to supply all ornaments at a fixed price, not to exceed 25*l.* in a kilted regiment, and 18*l.* in the Highland Light Infantry.

X. Officers appointed to Highland Regiments should place themselves in communication with the Officer Commanding the Battalions to which they may be posted, if at home, or with the Officer Commanding the Depôt, if the battalion be abroad, with a view to their obtaining the regulation ornaments at cost price.

XI. This order is prospective, and does not affect the ornaments which have been provided under existing regulations.

G.O. 119.—Extension of Service.

I. With reference to para. XI. of G.O. 80 of 1881, non-commissioned officers who, on the 1st July 1881, had completed a year's service as non-commissioned officer not below the rank of Corporal, may, should they desire it, at once extend their service with the Colours for the full period of their original engagements, under para. XI. (b) of the G.O. above quoted.

II. Should the non-commissioned officers in question fail to avail themselves of the permission now afforded them before 1st January 1882, they will fall under the provisions of para. XI. (b) of the G.O. referred to above.

G.O. 120.—Extension of Service.

No more extensions of service will be permitted under the provisions of G.O. 77 of 1881.

I. The non-commissioned officers and men named in the accompanying list (not inserted in Army List), have been awarded silver medals, with gratuities, for "Long Service and Good Conduct," under the provisions of Articles 902 to 907 of the Royal Warrant of the 25th June 1881 ("Army Regulations," Vol. I.).

II. The non-commissioned officers named in this list who have become Warrant Officers from 1st July 1881, under Article 517 of the above-quoted Warrant, have been specially included, as they are deemed to have been eligible for these rewards before the dates on which they became Warrant Officers.

G.O. 123.—Good-Conduct Medals.

With reference to para. 4 (a), sec. 21, "Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1878," it is notified for general information that the service of a soldier under 18 years of age may henceforth be included in the 18 years' service laid down as one of the qualifications under which recommendations may be submitted for the grant of medals for long service and good conduct.

G.O. 124.—Militia Regulations.

The following alterations will be made in the Militia Regulations, 1880, consequent on the passing of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1881, and the Army Act, 1881.

I. The following will be substituted for para. 142, as amended by Clause 91, Army Circulars of 1881:—

142. A Militiaman, who is discovered to have made a false answer on his attestation, will be dealt with as prescribed in sections 6, 7, and 8 of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1881, for any offence therein included. GEN. ORDERS—continued.

III. Para. 142*a*. will be amended as follows:—
In (1), for "Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879," substitute "Army Act, 1881," and for "sec. 173 (1)," substitute "section 181 (1)."
In (2), the last sentence will stand thus:—
Consequently a Militiaman making a false answer under section 31 of the Militia (Voluntary Enlistment) Act, 1875, was punishable under section 95 of the Army Discipline and Regulation Act, 1879, and therefore by the provisions of the Army Act, 1881, section 191 (3), is now punishable under section 99 of that Act.

IV. The following will be substituted for paras. 203–205:—
203. Any man who, while belonging to the Militia, has unlawfully enlisted into the Regular Forces will be dealt with as follows:—
(1.) If he is retained for service in the Regular Forces, he will be dealt with as prescribed in the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army.
(2.) If he is relegated to the Militia, his case may be disposed of as shall be directed by the General Officer Commanding the District to whom it is to be referred, under the Army Act, 1881, section 81; or his case may be. An attempt to commit any such offence is also punishable.

205*a*. A person who enlists into the Militia under the conditions detailed in section 7 (1)a of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1881, will be charged in the terms of that section, and not with making a false answer.

205*b*. Every offence under sections 6 and 7 of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1881, will be referred to the General Officer Commanding the District for his orders. As a rule, offences under section 6 should be sent for trial before a Court of Summary Jurisdiction, and offences under section 7 should be dealt with by Court-Martial; but a General Officer to whom such a case is referred may, if he thinks fit, order any case to be tried by Court-Martial or by a Court of Summary Jurisdiction.

V. Para. 211*a* is cancelled.

VI. The heading immediately preceding para. 212 will be altered to "10. Absence without leave."

VII. The following will be substituted for para. 214:—
214. Men absent without leave for a period not exceeding fourteen days may be dealt with by Commanding Officers without reference to superior authority.
If the absence exceeds fourteen days, the General Officer Commanding will deal with the case under sections 5 and 8 of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1881. If there is no special reason for dealing with it by Court-Martial, directions should be given for the prosecution of the offender before a Court of Summary Jurisdiction. It will be observed that the procedure for the apprehension and committal of army deserters prescribed by the Army Act is specially applied to absentees without leave from the Militia, by the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1881, section 8 (2).

It will be observed that the terms "desertion" and "fraudulent enlistment" are not applicable to the Militia and Militiamen in a disembodied state.

DENT'S CHRONOMETERS, WATCHES, and CLOCKS have long held pre-eminent rank, as may be seen from the Reports of various scientific persons:—

THE ASTRONOMER ROYAL, (Sir G. B. AIRY,) in his Report to the Admiralty (13th of August 1870) on the forty Chronometers entered for annual competition, says of M. F. DENT'S Chronometer—

"THIS IS THE FINEST CHRONOMETER THAT WE HAVE EVER HAD ON TRIAL."

N.B.—The LATE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (J. POND, Esq.), reporting in 1829 on the celebrated public trial, by order of The Lords of the Admiralty, which lasted thirteen years, during which nearly 500 Chronometers were tested, says:

"Your Chronometer, No. 114, is entitled to the First Premium. Actual variation in the year 0·54 hundredths of a second. This is superior to any other yet tried."

THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ASTRONOMER, M. STRUVE, of St. Petersburgh, reporting upon 81 Chronometers tested by the Russian Chronometrical Expedition, in 1843, says:

"The DENT CHRONOMETERS have held FIRST RANK in a brilliant manner. They contributed, beyond dispute, THE MOST EFFECTUALLY to the exactitude of the results.
"M. STRUVE."

 By Command of the Emperor, the Russian Gold Medal of the Highest Order of Merit was presented to Mr. DENT.

SIR WILLIAM ARMSTRONG, Inventor of the Armstrong Gun, says:—

"9, HYDE PARK STREET, W., 14th November 1861.
"The Chronometer Watch you made for me in December 1859 has never been affected by travelling or riding; its variation at the end of a year was only 45 seconds. It has proved in every respect a most satisfactory Watch.
"W. G. ARMSTRONG.

"Mr. M. F. DENT,
